Culpeper Farmers Too Modest in Appreciation of Their Possessions.

THE TOWN FULL OF BUSINESS

People Are Justly Proud of Their Light, Water and Sewerage Systems.

(Special from a Staff Correspondent.) CULPEPER, VA., June 20 .- I hav ome to the conclusion that the farmers of Culpeper are about as modest as any I have encountered in the course of much wandering up and down through this old State of ours. I never have and never or anything like it, against the farmers of the Southwest. Every Valley man is eager at all times to proclaim the place of his residence, and I don't blame place of his residence, and I don't blame him.

But it seems different here in Culpeper. There is no boasting of the really remarkable advantages possessed by the county, nor of the prosperity so ovident on every hand in the villages and on the farms. Culpeper is above the average Virginia county in size. I should say it is considerably above the average in prosperity and material wealth.

An ideal country town is this, somewhat, somnolent possibly, but with more of the hustle and enterprise of the worth and West than one often finds in Virginia county seats. Situated in the center of a magnificent farming country, it is the distributing point for supplies for a rich territory. The town is the rairoad station for a large portion of Rappahannock county, lying further back towards the Blue Ridge, a country rich in resources, which have been barely discovered, and whose development will make fortunes for somebody. There are over 2.000 people in the town of Culpeper. The town's electric light system is justly the pride of every citizen, because of its excellence. But the average Culpeper main is more proud of the water and sowerage system, which is just being completed. The system is an exceptionally fine one.

It is said that within the past ten years it is noticeable that Culpeper merchanis have prospered more greatly than theretofore. There are three banks in the town—two national and the Farmers and Merchants, a State bank, of which Mr. C. Jones Rixey is president. Mr. Rixey is also president of one of the national banks. ANOTHER CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

Captain W. S. Graham, 1321 Eoff St., Wheeling, W.Va., writing June 14, '04, says.' I am so grateful I want to thank God that a friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment to me, I suffered for a long time with sores on my face and back. Some doctors said I had blood poison, and others that I had barbers' itch. None of them did me any good, but they all took my money. My friends tell me my skin now looks as clear as a baby's, and I tell them all that Cuticura Soap and Ointment did it."

STILL ANOTHER CURE Neck Covered With Sores, Hair Fell Out, Wild With Itching

Mr. H. J. Spalding of 104 W. 104th St., New York City, says: "For two years my neck was covered with sores, the disease spreading to my hair, which fell out, leaving an unsightly bald spot, and the soreness, inflammation, and merciless itching made mation, and merciless itching made me wild. After a few applications of Cuticura the torment subsided, the sores disappeared, and my hair grew thick and healthy as ever."

"For over thirty years I suffered from paintul uters and an experior from my knees to my feet, and could find neither doctors nor medicines to help me, until I took Cuticura which curred me in six months. (signed) M. C. Mosa, Gainesville, Tex."

A Handicap.

Culpsper people want to take The Time patch. I have hen dilis on all sidesthis desire for a Virginia paper, printed at the capital of the State and devoted first to Virginia interests. But to-day, for instance, while the Washington and Baltimore papers reached here shortly after 9 o'clock. The Times-Dispatch did not arrive until 12:30. It should have sone to Washington on the train over the Richmond, Frederickshurg and Polomac, which arrives there about $0'clock, and have come down on the fast Southern Rallway mail, which invariably brings the Northern papers.

While the paper generally comes through on time, yet such "misses" as to-day are of common occurrence. The Culpeper people put the blame on the postal employes who handle the mail at Washington, the transfer point. It is certainly not the fault of the Culpeper office. The people of the town believe, and the inspectors have so reported, that Postmaster Whitestone keeps one of the best managed offices in the United States.

There is no doubt of there being a strong desire on the part of the Culpeper people to read a Richmond paper and to trade with Richmond dealers. Improved railway schedules would help them do both. A little more, insistence on the part of Richmond merchants would not he amiss. Improved freight rates might be secured. The Corporation Commission might be able to assist in both matters. It would be well not to everlook the fact that the Pensylvania, which controls all the lines entering Richmond from Culpeper, has always opposed the diversion of trade from Washington of Haltimore or Philadelphia to any city South, though such city were on the line of the Chrispenke and Ohlo or the Norfolk and vestern, which are under Pensylvania control. Were not this the case it would not cost almost as much as a carload of coal is worth to bring it from Southwest Virginia to Washington; twice as much coal from the Kanawha and New River fields would be going out of New port News to Northern markets, and the removal of the Pocahonias coal piers from New York harbor would not be in contemplation.

But this bears more or less remotely

But this bears more or less remotely upon the fact that there is trade here in Culpeper county amounting to many thousands—hundreds of thousands—of doi-lars every year, go ng to Northern clies, when the men inancially interested would like it to go to Richmond.

Doing Much Building.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SOUTH HILL, VA., June 20,-This pros-(Special to The Times-Diapatch.)

SOUTH HILL, VA., June 20.—This prosperous town of Southern Virginia is still growing rapidly, as is evidenced by the many buildings now in course of construction here. Mr. D. T. Yaneey, who represents the American Tobacco Company at this place, is erecting a very handsome dwelling on Mecklenburg Avenue, and Mr. Robert Thomas is building on the opposite side of Mecklenburg Avenue, quite a handsome villa for a bachelor, Mr. B. T. Wartman is also erecting a nice cottage. Mr. C. R. Hamlet, Jr. has completed and moved into his new residence. J. H. Osburn has moved into his handsome new residence, which is being equipped with all modern conveniences.

The Sydnor Pump and Well Company is erecting a larg tank and putting in the water pipes to supply Ogburn's Addition with water from the artesian well. This well has sufficient flow to operate a ram to supply the tank with water.

Mr. A. J. Hite has material on his lot on Ogburn's Addition to erect a handsome dwelling, and Mr. M. P. Andrews, contractor, will commence work on the same next week. The box factory is about completed and expected to commence operations in about thirty days. They will employ about fifty men.

The Bank of Chase City has purchased a lot and decided to build near the Farmers' Warehouse. They will open their branch office. September 1st.

The farmers have planted a large crop of tobacco, which in most places is growing off well.

The South Hill base-ball team has arranged for two base-ball games on the Fourth of July.

noon, after a hearing of four days, with a verdict for the defendant, Mrs. Cook failing to recover.

The plaintiff sued for damages to her granite quarry property in Matoaca District, near Petersburg, alieging that careless construction of the railway company's embankments and drainage ways caused the flooding of her quarry and interfered with the operations there. The plaintiff was paid $7.500 by the Seaboard Railway when its right of way was first secured, after a long contest, under condemnation proceedings in the County Court, and the railway company contended that that sum covered all damages complained of in the declaration in the suit just heard.

On account of the time consumed by the Cook suit counsel in the suit of W. O. Waikins against the Seaboard Air Line Railway to-day asked a continuance of the latter case until the next term, which was granted by the court.

To-morrow a suit of Rowena Reams vs. R. A. Robertson will be tried.

LYNCHBURG, VA., Jun. 20.—The State Central Republican Committee will meet at the Hotel Carroll here to-morrow night for the purpose of arranging for a State convention this summer and to place an entire State ticket in the field in opposition to the Democrats. Richmond and Roanoke will make a fight for the convention, but the impression among local Republicans

Mr. John H. Powell Gives a Piano Recital at the Y. M. C. A.

PETERSBURG, VA., June 20.-Erasmu Cooley, a young negro, was convicted in the Hustings Court this evening of snatching a pocketbook from Miss Nora Brockwell, and sent to the penitentiary Brockwell, and sent to the penitentiary for ten years. The theft occurred on Old Street the night of May 20th, while Miss Brockwell and her sister were returning home. The negro narrowly escaped immediate capture by jumping a fence into a private yard, leaving tracks on the ground into which Cooley's shoes fit. This evidence and Miss Brockwell's identification of Cooley were the main points against him. He has a police record and is believed to be the pocket-book snatcher who operated here every Saturday night for several weeks. After his arrest the crimes ceased.

NORFOLK, VA., June 20.—There is a movement to reunite the members of the Park View Methodist Church and the Congregational Church, which is composed of the bolters from the Park View Church. The latter left the church because Bishop Wilson, of the recent conference, refused to return Rev. J. E. Mcthee to the congregation, and formed a new church, from which Rev. J. G. Sibson has resigned as pastor. The latter created a sensation by announcing that he intended to leave for his health and then return to bring suit against members of the community who had said things about the cause of his ill health.

Members of both churches are trying to resore peace and promote a reunion.
